

MANCHESTER

Miss Ruth Rogers of Burlington, is visiting Miss Sarah W. Orvis.

Willie Benner of New York City, joined his family here over Memorial Day.

Franz Lorenz, leader of the Equinox Orchestra, arrived for the season on Wednesday morning.

Louis L. Towale has been obliged to give up his work at T. J. Healey's on account of ill health.

Miss Frances McBride of Bennington, is a guest of her aunt, Miss Monica McBride, on Prospect street.

Mrs. W. G. McKnight and family have arrived at their summer home on Shepard avenue for the summer.

There is to be a dance at Dorset Saturday evening, June 3rd. Music furnished by McBride's Orchestra. adv

Mrs. Payson S. Wild has returned to her home in Chicago after having been a guest of Mrs. J. N. Hard for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Peter Leming and Miss Anna Leming arrived Tuesday afternoon from Albany and will be in Manchester the rest of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Howell and daughter spent Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Orvis, coming to Manchester in their new automobile.

Next Sunday will be Children's Day at the Congregational Church. In the evening there will be an illustrated lecture on "Children in Faraway Lands."

Mrs. Lester H. Thompson and three children were over Sunday guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. Plyn Stannard, in Dorset, returning Tuesday afternoon.

While running after a ball Sunday Louis Cheronneau accidentally hit a post with his face and bit his tongue very severely, almost severing the end of it.

F. B. Fay of New York City, was here the last of the week to see about the opening of the Burnham cottage which Mr. and Mrs. Fay are to occupy this coming season.

Chas. Bruso sprained his right arm very seriously last week Wednesday. He went to Rutland and had an X-Ray taken of it in order to ascertain the exact nature of the injury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bacon had as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boswell of Troy, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Lyke of Johnstown, N. Y., and Miss Cora Wells of Gloversville, N. Y.

Mrs. Ella B. Swift, who has been spending the past winter with her sister, Mrs. Henry Frost in Smiths Falls, Ont., has returned to Manchester for the summer and opened her cottage on Main street.

The Equinox Company applied a coat of dust laying material in front of the Equinox House on Monday. They recently purchased a machine for the proper distribution of this material and it worked very nicely.

Mrs. D. W. Deane, DeWitt Deane, the Misses Deane and Miss Mildred Phelps went Saturday to their homes in Orwell to remain until Memorial Day, when they returned to Manchester. They made the trip by auto.

Mrs. R. P. Hoyt and Miss Frances Hoyt arrived the last of the week and are comfortably located in their summer home here. Mrs. Hoyt is entertaining her son, R. P. Hoyt, Jr., who is here on a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob of New York City, have been spending several days in town at the Orvis Cottage. Mrs. Jacob will be remembered by older Manchester people as being Miss Lottie Millett before marriage.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. L. H. Hemenway were held at the Hemenway home on Friday last, Rev. S. K. Perkins officiating. There was a large attendance of the family's old friends living here and several from out of town.

Charles Isham came up Saturday from New York City and is at his home here. He was joined over Memorial Day by his son, Lincoln Isham, who came up from Williams College to spend the day. Mr. Isham has since returned to New York.

The hot wave of the forepart of the week gave way Tuesday afternoon and all day Tuesday it rained by fits and starts, finally ending with a heavy downpour about five o'clock, after which it grew colder, finally clearing Wednesday morning.

Hon. D. K. Simonds has been again confined to his bed and under the care of a trained nurse. He is somewhat better at present. Mrs. Simonds is about on one crutch, having injured one of her knees by throwing the patella out of place.

Assistant Postmaster Leon E. Wiley went to Middlebury Saturday afternoon. On Sunday morning Mrs. Wiley, who with Miss Lois Wiley, is visiting her parents there, presented him with a son. Mr. Wiley was much pleased with his trip.

An insect appeared on the maple trees in this village last week and were fast despoiling the foliage before they were noticed. The Equinox Company had the maples in front of the hotel sprayed. It is hoped that they will take their departure as quickly and as quietly as they came.

Memorial Day in Manchester was carried out as planned, the only addition being the rain. There were but few of the old veterans to make the trip to the cemetery—in fact there are but few left in town now anyway. The services were conducted by J. C. Blackmer S. O. V. who acted as a guard of honor to the veterans. In the afternoon the exercises were completed at the Center and the address made by Rev. L. D. Penniman in the Opera House. The "thin blue line" gets thinner each year and it is doubtful if there are more than 15 veterans living in town to-day.

A telephone message was received by Dr. E. L. Wyman Sunday afternoon from Mrs. William J. Chapman of Glens Falls, that Rev. W. J. Chapman had been taken suddenly ill and would have to cancel his engagement to speak here Memorial Day. This was a great disappointment to himself and his many friends here. Rev. L. D. Penniman, pastor of the Methodist Church, kindly consented to take Mr. Chapman's place, and gave an excellent address.

Arcus' Motion Picture Arcade is going to show one of the greatest, as well as one of the newest, of the serials, "The Mysteries of Myra," the first installment of which will be put on June 15th. You certainly cannot afford to miss this wonderful play. They also have the latest and most up-to-date pictures that are being shown every night. They are interesting and varied. Commencing June 1 two shows will be given each night. Admission 10c. Saturday evenings, 15c. adv

Pretty Soft

The new Soft Collars look neat and are exceedingly comfortable. We have them for men and boys. Cluett Brand, 2 for 25c.

Our Cretonnes are works of art. Over 100 patterns at prices from 15c to $1 a yard.

The Toggery Shop

A very decided improvement is being made in this village by the building of a strong retaining wall opposite the Colburn House and the closing of the old road that went to the grist mill right next to the store of the Combination Cash Store Co. The wall will be very attractive when completed and besides being an ornament to the place will add to the safety of those who drive. The Messrs. Bond will improve their grist mill property by the widening of the approach and making it so that teams can come in and turn around with ease.

one given in the evening, and open to the public. A cordial welcome is extended to all who are interested in the school and in the subject, and in community welfare in all its forms. Admission is free.

Manchester people will feel that there is a treat in store for them when they know that Mrs. Hallie Phillips Gilchrist of Arlington, is to read in the Gymnasium on Friday afternoon, June 2nd, at half past one o'clock. Those who have already heard Mrs. Gilchrist will be eager to do so again and it will be an opportunity for all to avail themselves of a great privilege. No admission fee is charged.

Reading and Debating Contest of Burr and Burton Seminary

Preparatory to the final reading and debating contest to be held in the Gymnasium on Friday evening, June 9th at 8 o'clock, a preliminary meet was held in the Seminary chapel on Saturday afternoon the 20th of May. The contestants were elected from the four debating divisions, two representatives from each for the debate, and four from each for reading at sight prose selections comprising dialogue and narrative. Mrs. Charles Hawley, Miss Edna Orvis and Rev. S. K. Perkins acted as judges and those to whom they awarded the palm will compete in the June prize contest.

As a result, Miss Edna Graves and Daniel McLaughlin will appear versus Miss Edith Pike and Arthur Gilbert. The question to be debated reads as follows: "Resolved, That military drills should be a requirement for Secondary Schools."

The competitors in the reading contest are the Misses Irene Perry, Mildred Doane, Marcella McDevitt, Erald Benson and Messrs. Waldo Race, Benjamin Levin, Harold Bennett and DeWitt Doane.

An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged.

THE BEST PROOF

Manchester Citizens Canot Doubt It. Doan's Kidney Pills were used—They brought benefit.

The story was told to Manchester residents.

Time has strengthened the evidence. Has proven the result lasting.

The proof convincing.

Mrs. C. F. Peppier, 22 College St., Poughkeepsie, N. Y., says: "I suffered from lame back and other symptoms of kidney trouble and was often unable to get around. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I have had no return attack of kidney complaint." (Statement given August 25, 1908).

MORE THAN TWO YEARS LATER Mrs. Peppier said: "I have had no need of a kidney medicine since Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of kidney trouble."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Peppier has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. adv-6-2
